

COUNTRY GETAWAY

MARLIE AND SCOTT FELL IN LOVE IN HIGH SCHOOL AND RECENTLY MARRIED IN MELBOURNE. THEY CELEBRATED IN STYLE WITH THEIR CLOSEST FRIENDS AND FAMILY.

“It was a superb venue for our day with the most picturesque gardens, a fantastic wedding planner, boutique accommodation and an after-party room... because we wanted a party that never ended.” - MARLIE

SCOTT PROPOSED ON the Melbourne Star in December 2014. “He hired a private cabin and had rose petals on the floor, champagne and strawberries and life-sized cut-outs of us from my Year 12 formal,” says Marlie. The cutouts included the words WILL YOU MARRY ME, leaving Marlie in complete surprise. “He proposed with my grandmother’s ring which is 70 years old,” she says.

From the outset they envisioned a beautiful, classic celebration imbued with meaningful and joyous moments. They wanted to plan a weekend celebration for their family and friends so looked at venues that offered the opportunity to escape to the country.

They chose to celebrate at the stunning Glen Erin, nestled in the Macedon Ranges. “It was a superb venue for our day with the most picturesque gardens, a fantastic wedding planner, boutique accommodation and an after-party room... because we wanted a party that never ended,” says Marlie.

She looked stunning in a couture gown by Angela Marcuccio that featured a low-back and exquisite detail. Her four bridesmaids wore classic navy cocktail dresses and carried bouquets of pink and white roses and lush foliage.

The reception venue featured similar arrangements complemented by an abundance of candlelight. Guests enjoyed a decadent sit-down meal before dancing the night away with the newlyweds. MW

Photography Le Portrait Studio Photography & Videography. Bride's gown Angela Marcuccio Bridal Couture. Groom's attire Expedition Apparel. Bridesmaids' dresses Alannah Hill. Groomsmen's attire Expedition Apparel. Ceremony & Reception Glen Erin. Celebrant Danielle Binaisse. Wedding Stylist Ceremonies I Do. Flowers Gisborne Cottage Flowers. Videographer Studio N. Hair & Makeup Adrienne Makeup Artist and Hairstylist