An elegant outdoor wedding among the vines

GROWING ROMANCE Lauren and Brad first met as friends at work by the photocopier. A year later romance found them and the couple started dating, eventually spending two-and-a-half years travelling and working together overseas. It was during this time that Brad proposed in the beautiful Cotswolds, England. They wed on April 5th, the same date as Brad's parents and grandparents, and Lauren's great-grandparents. SOMETHING BLUE "We wanted a beautiful and elegant outdoor wedding among the vines, and a classic-style reception that felt like a party," says Lauren, opting for a fresh pastel colour scheme with a Tiffany Blue focus. Lauren looked beautiful in an ivory strapless sweetheart gown from Maria Gonzales Bridal Couture. Adding the perfect final touch, Lauren accessorised with a Tiffany & Co. bracelet with a blue heart as her "something new and something blue". COUNTRY VINEYARD With a modest guest list, Lauren and Brad celebrated their special day with 100 of their closest friends and family at the beautiful Glen Erin Vineyard Retreat. The venue was an obvious choice for the couple as it provided for the ceremony, reception and accommodation all in the one location. "Kim and the team made the planning so much fun and went above and beyond to give us a perfect day," recounts Lauren fondly, adding, "Our wedding day was the best day of our lives." BRIDE'S ADVICE "Take a break during the reception and watch everyone around you having fun. It gives you a chance to take it all in and appreciate the moment, as the day passes by so fast."
